

Computer Classes in Our Community*

1. Arlington Employment Center (AEC)

a. Basic and advanced computer skills classes in the evening at 2 locations: Arlington Mill Community Center and 1801 N. George Mason Drive (next to VA Hospital Center). Free for Arlington residents who can prove they are eligible to work. Intermediate-advanced English; taught in English. Contact AEC main office at (703) 228-1400, Sequoia Plaza, DHS building.

b. Workshops for job seekers. For high-intermediate-advanced English; some workshops are taught in Spanish. To see descriptions, go to <http://aec.arlingtonva.us/>, click on "Attend a workshop." Also see Event Calendar: <http://aec.arlingtonva.us/events/>

2. Arlington Public Library

Different topics. Some basic classes taught in other languages, otherwise high-intermediate-advanced English. Contact 703-228-5990 <http://library.arlingtonva.us/> > Services > Computer Services > Technology Training. Direct link: <http://library.arlingtonva.us/eventscalendar/technology-training/> Also can sign up for one-on-one help by appointment. You can also use your library card number to access intensive online training for many different professional, industry-specific software via www.lynda.com. Contact Library for assistance.

3. Arlington Public Schools Office of Adult Education

The Adult Education Office shares front office space with REEP in Syphax Education Center, Sequoia Plaza. A variety of computer classes are taught in English and Spanish. Contact 703-228-7200, or get information online at www.apsva.us > Instruction > Career, Technical & Adult Education > Adult Education > catalog

5. Computer C.O.R.E.

This program offers computer training focused on job placement. If you qualify for the program, you pay a reduced tuition rate. <http://computercore.org/> Four locations in Fairfax County. High-intermediate-advanced English.

7. Gates of Ballston Community Center | AHC, Inc.

Free computer lab/class for adults. Drop in, no sign up. Taught by a volunteer. Tuesdays and Thursdays 7-9pm. All levels welcome. Gates of Ballston Community Center, 4108 N. 4th Street, Arlington, VA 22203, 703.875.8600.

8. Other: Ask about computer classes or job skills training at these places in your community:

school	community center, recreation center
church, synagogue, mosque, temple	workplace
immigrant services program	library
housing office	